Allison,

Thank you for your email.

Recognizing Rob is out of the office this week and we would want his comments, and also recognizing John is occupied with the Animas spill in CO and NM, if you could please review and provide your comments this week. In the alternative if you could review and to share your comments with Rob next week and provide us your joint comments once he returns.

Thanks,

Bruce

(By the way, I only say "absolutely 100% cannot wait" because I believe John is very busy dealing with the Gold King mine release.) Thank you for your patience!
